

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries messages in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in The Dispatch.

At The Mahoning Dispatch office, not while you wait, but promptly and in a manner that will please you. Prices are consistent with service rendered. A trial order is solicited. Please place it now.

Washingtonville

Harry Chappell, who was in the Salem hospital, having undergone an operation, was able to be brought to his home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grindie and daughter and Miss Esther Calvin of Locust Grove were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

A letter received from Mont Weikart this week states he is well and happy and making the best of life over there. He is located at Elvenbreiten, Germany. He is a member of a local talent show from his company and much of their time is spent going to different places near where they are located putting on the show. He is anxious to get home but says there is not much sign yet of their company returning soon.

Mrs. James Needham, Miss Della Frederick, Mrs. Jack Faloon and Nathan Croft were among the friends who attended the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Brookhart last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Warner and Jesse McNeil and family of Salem were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McNeal.

Born, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pitman, Friday. Mother and son are getting along nicely.

Mrs. O. Bossert and Mrs. C. H. Weis, spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Curtis in Alliance.

Charles Stouffer bought the Gilbert homestead sold at public auction last Saturday. He takes possession this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culler moved to Leetonia last week into the I. F. Melinger property near the park.

Mrs. Wm. Weikart returned home last week from several days' visit at the home of her son in East Liverpool. Her son Harland accompanied her home for a few days' stay.

Mrs. Lizzie Baird and children of New Waterford were Tuesday guests in the home of Mrs. Samuel Rohrer.

Mrs. Charity Rohrer, after several weeks' illness, resumed her duties at the Cooperative store Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hartenstein of Chicago are here for several weeks' visit.

Announcements were received of the arrival of a little daughter in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stamp of Cleveland on March 7. The little Miss will be named Justine LaRue.

Mrs. Stamp was Anna Frederick, formerly of this place.

Raymond Stouffer was a Leetonia caller Tuesday.

Raymond and Earl Lewis of Youngstown were here Sunday with their father, John Lewis, who is a sufferer from neuritis.

C. H. Weikart was in Youngstown Monday.

Roy Rolter of Youngstown visited his mother here Sunday.

Misses Mae and Catherine Gallagher of Salem were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Leason.

Misses Ruth Smedley and Emma Tourdot and Wm. Kirby of Youngstown were here among home folks last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shepard and son Harold were Leetonia visitors Sunday.

Mrs. John Lewis was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Paul Mathey and Mrs. Postage spent Wednesday in Salem.

Wm. Pitman was in New Waterford Wednesday.

David Sterling of Salem spent the week end here at the home of his brother, Allan Sterling and family.

Mrs. Olive Kautle visited her parents near Alliance during the week end.

Preaching at the Lutheran church next Sunday morning and evening.

An Easter Opening of Ladies, Misses and Children's trimmed hats, beginning Monday, March 24, for one week. Prices from $2 to $6. All the new summer shapes and colors, at Brain's Millinery—adv.

Mike Golzgranz vacated the Simpson farm and moved Tuesday to the experimental fruit farm east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Palmer of Youngstown were Saturday visitors at the home of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fenstermaker of East Palestine were here over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Bossert.

Mrs. Carl Hildebrand is in the Salem hospital, having undergone an operation. Her condition is reported favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson were Youngstown visitors Monday.

Miss Hilda Gordon of Sebring spent the week end with her parents here.

Red Cross met Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schafer of Leetonia called here Saturday.

J. C. Gordon was in Berlin one day last week.

Mrs. Lydia Fenstermaker was in Youngstown last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Florence were in Youngstown Saturday.

Ether Gosser spent Sunday at her home here.

Mr. Bilzard, Mrs. Welsh and son Leroy of Youngstown spent a few days here with Mrs. B. F. Pressell and family.

Harry Schafer is assisting Minor Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kean spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kean of Newton Falls.

Tea meeting and Friday evening at the home of Mary Crook.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Baringer. Officers were elected for the year as follows:

Mrs. Lillie Baringer, president; Mrs. Tiller Gibson, secretary; Mrs. Ethel Bowman, treasurer; social committee, Mrs. Lydia Fenstermaker, Mrs. Frank Reesler and Mrs. Blanche Brooke; flower committee, Mrs. Irene Gordon, Mrs. Mervin Mathews, Mrs. Josephine Buntz. The ladies are planning to have their annual Easter social.

Quite a number were given the first and second degrees in grange Tuesday evening, Berlin grange putting on the work.

Mrs. Wm. Schafer, who has blood poisoning, is improving slowly.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

Mrs. William Schafer is very ill with blood poisoning.

The dance was held in K. of P. hall Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Salsgiver and mother Mrs. V. V. Zimmerman and daughter Pearl and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weikart of Youngstown spent Saturday night and Sunday in Greenford.

The groundhog has been sticking to his text pretty well and a great many around here have had colds.

Mr. Durr of Franklin Square called on Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Fitch and J. P. McNeilly called on Mrs. Jessie Fitch in Canfield Saturday afternoon.

William Brooke of North Platte, Neb., is spending some time at the home of Mrs. Amanda Allen.

Anyone desiring to make any donation to the Red Cross center in Alliance kindly notify a Boy Scout meeting before Friday evening as all donations must be collected in time for delivery to the train Saturday morning.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

MILLVILLE

March 12—Frank Oesch of Damascus spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr.

The young people of our Sunday school will hold a masquerade box social in connection with it. A county fair Friday evening, March 21. Everybody attend and have a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheen, Mrs. C. D. Arner, daughter Miss Lucy and son Raymond motored to Youngstown Saturday evening and witnessed the boxing match.

Charles Callidine spent Saturday with friends in Leetonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Berger moved into their new home southeast of Salem.

T. C. Stock of Salem spent a day here with Mr. and Mrs. Allison.

Mrs. C. D. Arner and Miss Mary Archer attended a recital by the Boston sextette at the Salem high school Monday night.

Raymond Greenanysre underwent an operation in the Salem hospital last week. He is resting as comfortably as can be expected.

Archibald Holland returned home Thursday evening from Camp Gordon, Ga. Mr. Holland just finished his ninth month of training at the time of his discharge. He entered upon military duty May 29. During this time he honorably acquitted himself a soldier. He visited points of interest in the south and east before returning home.

John Hendricks, who has been critically ill the past two weeks, has made a little improvement.

Mrs. Nathan Hyman of New York, who was called here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Chas. Lee, of Salem, sent a few days with Mrs. Abbie Sell.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Hartenstein of Chicago are here for several weeks' visit.

Charles Barnes of the Franklin road visited Mr. and Mrs. James Matzenbaugh Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Vonneman and son Eldon of Salem spent Sunday here with friends.

Miss Ethel Sanders of Sebring was a Sunday guest of her parents.

Miss Lucy Arner of Homeworth spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Many from here enjoyed the musical in the Salem high school auditorium Monday night.

ISLAND

March 12—Memorial services will be held Sunday afternoon, March 16, at the Midway Mennonite church for Sgt. Walter Detrow who was killed in action in France October 1. Sgt. Detrow was united with the church in his youth.

Rev. and Mrs. David Wenger of Burton City visited relatives and friends here the past week, leaving for home Monday.

Mr. Sarah Kurtz and family are recovering from the flu.

A. W. Detrow and family, Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Witmer and sons Ezra and Owen and daughter Mary, Mrs. Fannie Lehman, Rev. and Mrs. David Wenger, Mr. and Mrs. John Witmer and daughter Nettie were entertained Sunday by Rev. Harvey Horst and family.

Henry Lehman was a Youngstown business caller Friday.

Frank Van Pelt called on Norman Lehman Sunday.

Paul Calvin of Hiram was an over Sunday guest of his parents here.

A number of our ladies met at the home of Mrs. Amos Detrow Saturday and sewed carpet rags and did quilts.

Miss Bertha Tescher called on Miss Mollie Lehman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weaver visited Noah Weaver and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Blosser are the proud parents of a baby girl born Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weaver and daughter Elma and John Horst visited Sunday with Adam Wenger and family.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Zion Hill Brethren church for Venice Longanacker of East Leetonia. Little Venice had the flu several weeks ago and never fully recovered from the effects of it. Services were conducted by Rev. Albert Harter and Rev. Jonas Horst. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Longanacker, who were not able to attend the funeral, have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

Miss Ida Weaver is assisting Mrs. Sam Blosser.

BERLIN CENTER

March 12—Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Woodward of Alliance visited their son Merle and wife, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Stallsmith and son Paul were in Alliance recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Florence and little daughter spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Florence's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. DeHoff, in West Austintown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Hoyle of Youngstown spent Sunday with the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. Forney and Mrs. Lewis.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Caven attended the funeral of Rev. J. E. Russell in Alliance last Thursday.

Emory Bowker of Warren visited at Mr. A. W. Leyman's last week.

L. E. Keeler is unloading a car load of feed.

Wm. Keeler is moving this week to his recently purchased farm known as the Solon Day property.

W. S. Hoover went to Ravenna Tuesday.

Wallace B. Heiser, who was one of the contestants at the 4th annual literary contest of the Mahoning County high school held at Lowellville Friday night, won second place. He was one of ten who delivered orations.

ELLSWORTH

March 12—Miss Hilda Gordon of Sebring spent the week end with her parents here.

Red Cross met Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schafer of Leetonia called here Saturday.

J. C. Gordon was in Berlin one day last week.

Mrs. Lydia Fenstermaker was in Youngstown last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Florence were in Youngstown Saturday.

Ether Gosser spent Sunday at her home here.

Mr. Bilzard, Mrs. Welsh and son Leroy of Youngstown spent a few days here with Mrs. B. F. Pressell and family.

Harry Schafer is assisting Minor Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kean spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kean of Newton Falls.

Tea meeting and Friday evening at the home of Mary Crook.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Baringer. Officers were elected for the year as follows:

Mrs. Lillie Baringer, president; Mrs. Tiller Gibson, secretary; Mrs. Ethel Bowman, treasurer; social committee, Mrs. Lydia Fenstermaker, Mrs. Frank Reesler and Mrs. Blanche Brooke; flower committee, Mrs. Irene Gordon, Mrs. Mervin Mathews, Mrs. Josephine Buntz. The ladies are planning to have their annual Easter social.

Quite a number were given the first and second degrees in grange Tuesday evening, Berlin grange putting on the work.

Mrs. Wm. Schafer, who has blood poisoning, is improving slowly.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

Mrs. William Schafer is very ill with blood poisoning.

The dance was held in K. of P. hall Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Salsgiver and mother Mrs. V. V. Zimmerman and daughter Pearl and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weikart of Youngstown spent Saturday night and Sunday in Greenford.

The groundhog has been sticking to his text pretty well and a great many around here have had colds.

Mr. Durr of Franklin Square called on Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Fitch and J. P. McNeilly called on Mrs. Jessie Fitch in Canfield Saturday afternoon.

William Brooke of North Platte, Neb., is spending some time at the home of Mrs. Amanda Allen.

Anyone desiring to make any donation to the Red Cross center in Alliance kindly notify a Boy Scout meeting before Friday evening as all donations must be collected in time for delivery to the train Saturday morning.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

GREENFORD

March 12—Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rhodes are the proud parents of a three weeks old baby boy. His name is Warren, Jr. His father is still somewhere in France.

Mrs. Laura Cochel, widow of the late A. W. Cochel, went to Salem hospital for treatment last week.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Dell Rolter today. The ladies served dinner. The event honoring Mrs. Rolter's birthday anniversary. She was presented with a sugar bowl and creamer.

Misses Barbara and Lydia Rhodes were guests of Mrs. Mary Kenrich and family last Tuesday.

Mrs. C. W. Clay spent a few days last week with her son Royal and family in Canfield.

Mrs. Frank Crist and daughter Hel-Alliance came Sunday to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Rhodes.

Mrs. Roy Clay is spending some time with her sister in Youngstown.

Frank Griffith of Guilford spent Sunday here.

B. Schroy spent the week end in Indianapolis, Ind., with his son Carey.

J. U. Walter spent last Saturday in Washingtonville crying the sale of the late George Gilbert.

Miss Booth's brother, recently home from Camp, visited her at the home of Mrs. B. Rhodes.

Sixteen relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rotzel surprised them Sunday, it being their 20th wedding anniversary. A three-course dinner was served. Guests included John Rotzel and family of Gettysburg, Delmar Rotzel and family, Mrs. Thomas Bush and daughter Laura and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rotzel of Greenford.

The grist mill company is having a new grist mill erected.

The dance was held in K. of P. hall Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Salsgiver and mother Mrs. V. V. Zimmerman and daughter Pearl and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weikart of Youngstown spent Saturday night and Sunday in Greenford.

The groundhog has been sticking to his text pretty well and a great many around here have had colds.

Mr. Durr of Franklin Square called on Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Fitch and J. P. McNeilly called on Mrs. Jessie Fitch in Canfield Saturday afternoon.

William Brooke of North Platte, Neb., is spending some time at the home of Mrs. Amanda Allen.

Anyone desiring to make any donation to the Red Cross center in Alliance kindly notify a Boy Scout meeting before Friday evening as all donations must be collected in time for delivery to the train Saturday morning.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen are slowly recovering from influenza.

Mrs. Harry Brown has returned home from Austintown, having been called there by the illness and death of her father, Mr. Donahue.

The ladies who saw all day for the Red Cross are planning a "covered dish" luncheon next Saturday at the noon hour. There is much sewing to be done, so let all who can come and spend the day.